Purchasing an Alfa Romeo from that period of time (1980-1999) is like a lucky draw. Either you get something that's real good, or you get something real bad. Their manufacturing skills are unstable. And they are in financial crisis.

Everything is uncertain. And that is no longer the golden age of Alfa.

Any corner-cutting here will do the engine no good. A car that feels down on power probably just needs a new air flow meter.
