Direct from Honda Italy,
the 2010 SH150i is just one of a few new tricks up Honda's sleeve for the coming model year.

Receiving a dose of updates in 2008, the SH

sold in the European market for a few years before coming to America. The previously carbureted SH150 picked up an injector as well as roomier rider ergos.

Around 2010, the SH150i

2010-sh150i-sh-150-i-honda-service-repair-manual-2225

was the best selling scooter in Europe but sales in North America were slow - likely due in part to a lofty MSRP of $4499. This price put it $500 more expensive than Kawasaki's Ninja 250 motorcycle and $1500 more expensive than Yamaha's competing Zuma/BWS 125. It was even more expensive than Vespa's 150cc scooters.
