History of nursing - American Nurses Association

At the beginning of the Revolutionary War, it is estimated only 200 doctors in the colonies had medical degrees. Nurses did not have degrees for the simple fact that there was no formal training for nurses until the mid-19 th century. However, George Washington recognized the need to better the care for the sick and wounded and, in July 1775, the Continental Congress approved medical support for a Continental Army of 20,000 men.
