

Aspet And Little Studio Saint Gaudens National Historic Site Historic Structures Report Update

Aspet and Little Studio | This report will focus on Aspet, the home of Augustus Saint- Gaudens, and on his studio, known as the Little Studio. The scope of this project as stated in its Project Agreement is limited to providing an update to four previously compiled historic structure reports for the main house (Aspet) and the Little Studio.

Concerts in the Little Studio at Aspet, Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site, are made possible by the generosity of the Trustees of the Saint-Gaudens Memorial. The park is open daily from Memorial Day weekend to October 31, 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM. Admission to the site is $7.00 per person, children 16 and under admitted free.

Saint-Gaudens was a driven man, meticulous in every way, and critical of his own work. While it might seem that Saint-Gaudens was all work and little play, life at Aspet was far from monastic. Henry Duffy, curator and chief of cultural resources at the estate, has drawings of a nine-hole golf course on the property.
