Attrib. and other stories celebrates the tricksiness of language just as it confronts its limits.

Correspondingly, the stories are littered with the physical ephemera of language: dictionaries, dog-eared pages, bookmarks and old

coffee stains on older books. This is writing that centres on the weird, tender intricacies of the everyday where characters vie to
' own ' their words, tell tall tales and attempt to define their worlds.
