

Cultivating Prayer Intercession In The Local Church 9 Principles That Release The Church To Pray Without Ceasing

As the worldwide prayer movement continues to flourish, never before have so many Christians from so many faith traditions joined together to intercede for so long--in their homes, in their churches, in their communities. As the prayer movement continues to explode, leaders emerge to give guidance to the growing number of intercessors . . . and Alice Smith is at their forefront, leading the leaders who have lifted the banner of passionate, effective intercessory prayer for this generation and the next. In Beyond the Veil, Smith proclaims God's call for His people to pray and shares what she has learned on her own journey toward deeper intimacy with God through prayer. Whether readers are new to intercession or are veteran prayer warriors, they will discover sound, biblical methods for binding the enemy and loosing the Holy Spirit in their families, churches, and nations. Each chapter includes questions and prayer exercises, with a corresponding devotional to bring the principles of intercession to life, making Beyond the Veil the essential guidebook for the prayer revival that is sweeping the globe.

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

As the founder of the International House of Prayer, Mike Bickle has devoted his life to understanding and practicing the principles and power of prayer. In this book he combines his biblical study with his extensive experience on the topic to give readers a complete manual on the power and practice of prayer.

Endorsed by Justin Taylor, Donald Whitney, and others, Water of the Word is a prayer-book that has enriched thousands of marriages, helping husbands discover the power of praying God's Word for their wives. Be a part of the scripture-prayer movement, and join others in reaping the benefits for your own love story. "Blessed is the wife whose husband offers prayers on her behalf such as those in this book." -DONALD S. WHITNEY, author of "Spiritual Disciplines for the Christian Life" "A great idea and a most helpful and welcome book!" -JUSTIN TAYLOR, The Gospel Coalition, Crossway senior vice president and publisher By combining the two greatest powers on earth--scripture and prayer--Andrew Case not only shows husbands how to pray for our wives, but teaches us how to read scripture: prayerfully. This book is a gold mine. -MIKE MASON, Bestselling author of "The Mystery of Marriage" "For husbands, or men desiring to fill God's noble calling to love their wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, Water of the Word provides not only a biblical framework, replete with verses to focus one's attention and catalyze one's spiritual thinking, but also beautiful prose to stir the soul of devotional prayer. More than a guidebook, it is rather a springboard to a deepening love relationship with God and with one's wife. I have used this book personally, as well as for a devotional guide for the Marriage Enrichment class here at Southern Seminary. A book to savor, reflect on, and then offer prayers from a pure heart and clear conscience." -WILLIAM R. CUTRER M.D., author of "Sexual Intimacy in Marriage" "Andrew Case has provided an ingenious and glorious tool for Christian husbands, one that has the potential of binding husbands and wives ever closer together while these prayers seek more intimate relationship between their wives and their God. By employing themes, principles, promises, and pleas from Scripture itself, Case has crafted hundreds of rich and meaningful prayers that any and every Christian husband can pray for his own wife. What power and insight one finds in these prayers, along with beauty and variety. Husbands here are led not only into specific prayers for their wives that focus on the central and most significant needs they have as women, but they are led also to cultivate better the habit of praying for their wives, and through this assisting the spiritual growth of those closest to them in all of life."

God doesn't demand hectic church programs and frenetic schedules; he only wants his people to know him more intimately, says top-selling author D. A. Carson. The apostle Paul found that spiritual closeness in his own fellowship with the Father. By following Paul's example, we can do the same. This book calls believers to reject superficiality and revolutionize their lives by embracing a God-guided approach to prayer. Previously published as A Call to Spiritual Reformation, this book has now been updated to connect more effectively with contemporary readers. A study guide, DVD, and leader's kit for the book are available through Lifeway and The Gospel Coalition.

A collection of prayers of worship and praise, thanksgiving, celebration, confession, intercession, and petition that address concerns of children and introduce phonetic sounds from A to Z.

To be battle ready is the mentality of the kingdom of God. He who desires victory... He who desires the crown... He who desires the palace must be ready for war. You are being prepared for your crown. Greater crowns attract greater persecution. But you are anointed to wear your crown. You are anointed with enablement, ability, endurance, and power to overcome. The purpose of this intercessor's prayer guide is to stir up the gift of intercession within you. Every believer prays, but not all praying people are intercessors. The difference is found deep within the heart of the intercessor. Most gifts are demonstrated by ability, but intercession is demonstrated by relationship. Prayer works on our character. "Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them." {Hebrews 7:25}. Intercession is a priestly ministry. Jesus, our High Priest, wants us to do the work of intercession with Him. The entire work of the Holy Spirit is to catch us up to hear the Father talking to the Son and the Son talking to the Father about you... about me... and those matters that affect us." "For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." {1 Timothy 2:5}. As intercessors, we can approach the throne of God in confidence. Jesus is at the right hand of the Father, interceding on our behalf, presenting his own blood against Satan's accusations and attacks. Jesus is fighting on our behalf. He is our intercessor. His word concerning us will never return void. God releases His power through the intimacy of intercession. An intercessor is a priestly role. Just as Jesus {Yeshua in Hebrew} stands in the gap between man and God, intercessors likewise stand in the gap between man and God, advocating for something that he or she believes that God wants. There is a word from God for every situation we encounter. An intercessor spends time in the presence of the Holy Spirit to ascertain the will of God. Armed with divine clearance, intercessors contend in prayer for the purposes of God to be established on the earth. King David was a worshiper. He knew how to get into the presence of the Lord. King David prayed, at times he took up the Urim and the Thummim, and worshiped God with psalms in pure and radiant love. These psalms continue to inspire us today. Likewise, as intercessors our worship and our intercession must be like incense to the Lord. We must cultivate the presence of God and pray until God the Father releases His power for what we have prayed. As intercessors, we can ask of the Lord and He will send His angels to bring forth that request. "Ask of me and I will give you the nations as your inheritance." {Psalms 2:8}. As intercessors our stance against the enemy is based on a warfare theodicy. Theodicy is the vindication of God's divine goodness and providence in the existence of evil. Jesus has given us the authority to overcome all the power of the enemy. Jesus, our High Priest, sits far above every throne, dominion, principality, and power - and we are seated together with Him. Every assignment of the enemy can be demolished through the power of intercession: All sorcery, all oppression, every attack, every setback, every plot, and every wicked scheme - all of it.

Do the programs crowding the typical church's weekly schedule today lack an essential element, one that is fundamental to their having the greatest spiritual impact? This biblically grounded book asserts that many leaders overlook the necessary precondition of discerning and cooperating with the empowering will of the Holy Spirit before putting their plans into action. Growing the Church in the Power of the Holy Spirit is a highly practical guide for nurturing relations between believers and the Holy Spirit, a process facilitated by seven dynamics. • Love that draws us into engagement • Faith and obedience • Receiving divine guidance • Exercising spiritual discernment • Welcoming the gifts and manifestations of the Holy Spirit • Intercessory prayer that shapes the future • Seeing and responding to kairos moments Advanced by the church leadership and brought into being by the Holy Spirit, these factors help congregations preach and teach, worship, heal, govern, make disciples of converts, and evangelize. One of this book's strengths is the use of case studies to illustrate how the seven dynamics can take root in local congregations.

Taryn Ogunkoya is married to Oluwarotimi Ogunkoya and is mother of one child, Cameron Palmer. As a young child she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and at 16 years of age, she began to live her life dedicated to God. For the past 13 years, she has been indulging herself in prayer classes, seminars, and in the presence of God. As a result of her passion for prayer, the Lord began to reveal himself and his strategies for his people to be effective in their intercession. God revealed to her that her destiny in the Earth is to teach his people how to pray and get results. In her obedience to God, Intercession 101 was birthed and her goal is to release many more training manuals on prayer and intercession. It is her heart desire to see God's people grow in their passion and their fervency for prayer.

Carson calls believers to revolt against superficiality and find again the deeper knowledge of God at Paul's school of prayer. Strong expository study.

A Lost Book from J. Oswald Sanders Now Re-Released with a Beautiful New Cover "Many true lovers of the Lord are beset with a sense of inadequacy and failure in living the Christian life as it ought to be lived. ... they yearn to know Christ better and serve Him more worthily. It is to such that this little volume is addressed." -J. Oswald Sanders, from the introduction J. Oswald Sanders (best known for his book Spiritual Leadership, which has sold over a million copies) touched hundreds of thousands of lives in his lifetime and continues to inspire Christians today. His books Spiritual Leadership, Spiritual Maturity, and The Incomparable Christ are beloved and well-read to this day. But there are two of his books that readers haven't had access to in over 30 years. Cultivation of Christian Character is one of them. It's a profound and challenging book for anyone who earnestly wants to know God more. Sanders teaches you about spiritual struggle, the healing power of Scripture, and how to fight spiritual warfare victoriously. But most of all he shows you how to give up your self-focus and take up a Christ-focus. Any Christian who wants to grow will surely be benefited by this book.

So, my dear brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy . . . 1 Corinthians 14:39. It was the Apostle Paul's earnest desire that every follower of Jesus would know and experience the delight of hearing God's voice, and of sharing it with others for their exhortation and encouragement. In this collection of impressions, reflections, and prayers, author Carol M. BoRich does just that. Here, she offers readers the opportunity to hear what God is speaking to them through His Word, prayer, and prophetic impressions she has received in some of her own prayer times. Use the provided spaces in the 31 days of readings to record your own impressions—your personal "musings"—as you prayerfully cultivate a more intimate relationship with God through His Holy Spirit, and learn to hear His voice for yourself in your own daily experience.

Prayer is a crucial part of the Christian life, and believers must give it careful attention and cultivation. As they pray, Christians exercise their faith in repentance, in submission to God's will, and in praise to God. Believers in Christ, then, must grow in their prayer life—in their communion with God. In this pamphlet, Joel R. Beeke gives readers helpful, practical ways to improve their prayer lives by first disciplining themselves, in dependence on the Holy Spirit, and by then taking hold of God. Learn what a blessing it is to pray! Table of Contents: Take Inventory of Your Prayer Life Take Hold of Yourself Take Hold Of God Series Description D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones once said that what the church needs to do most all is “to begin herself to live the Christian life. If she did that, men and women would be crowding into our buildings. They would say, ‘What is the secret of this?’” As Christians, one of our greatest needs is for the Spirit of God to cultivate biblical godliness in us in order to put the beauty of Christ on display through us, all to the glory of the triune God. With this goal in mind, this series of booklets treats matters vital to Christian experience at a basic level. Each booklet addresses a specific question in order to inform the mind, warm the affections, and transform the whole person by the Spirit's grace, so that the church may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

When God's Spirit moves, change happens! Prayer happens for many reasons, but no prayer is uttered by accident. When we pray, individual lives change. Imagine watching whole neighborhoods affected, cities and nations touched by the power of prayer. With the key concepts taught in Intercessors Arise, you'll learn to release your potential in prayer through practical and personal application steps. Use it alone or with a group, and stand in the gap for a world in need of change.

Many of us long to see God move mightily in response to our prayers. We've heard of such stories. And some of us have experienced them. But how can we start a prayer ministry at our own church that is biblically based, responsible, and shows sensitive compassion for others? Praying with God's power is not permission to "get weird," launch into "spooky prayers," or alienate the rest of the church. Walking in our authority in Christ can be done with established ministry protocols that enhance your own church culture. The Praying Church shows us how to build safe, sustainable, team-based ministries of prayer that deepen our trust in each other and ensure that God, alone, gets the glory. Salas shares accounts from his own journey of spiritual formation--from saying "anemic" prayers to declaring life-giving words of blessing and power, ushering him into a deeper intimacy with God that his heart has always longed for. The biblically solid approach in The Praying Church honors theologically conservative traditions while embracing individuals no matter where they are in their faith journey.

In 7 Commitments for Spiritual Growth Mike Bickle and Brian Kim present a compelling prophetic wake-up call to the Body of Christ in this generation by outlining the need for the ministry of the forerunner. This prophetic call is backed up with practical wisdom on how to use these seven foundational commitments to live in wholehearted abandonment to Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit. These practical steps have been a key to the spiritual growth of believers throughout the centuries and are necessary for those who will not settle for anything less than radical pursuit of God.

A Call to Spiritual Reformation

Unfolding the Rich Intercession of the Bible

In early medieval Europe, monasticism constituted a significant force in society because the prayers of the religious on behalf of others featured as powerful currency. The study of this phenomenon is at once full of potential and peril, rightly drawing attention to the wider social involvement of an otherwise exclusive group, but also describing a religious community in terms of its service provision. Previous scholarship has focused on the supply and demand of prayer within the medieval economy of power, patronage, and gift exchange. Intercessory Prayer and the Monastic Ideal in the Time of the Carolingian Reforms is the first volume to explain how this transactional dimension of prayer factored into monastic spirituality. Renie S. Choy uncovers the relationship between the intercessory function of monasteries and the ascetic concern for moral conversion in the minds of prominent religious leaders active between c. 750-820. Through sustained analysis of the devotional thought of Benedict of Aniane and contemporaneous religious reformers during the reigns of Charlemagne and Louis the Pious, Choy examines key topics in the study of Carolingian monasticism: liturgical organization and the intercessory performances of the Mass and the Divine Office, monastic theology, and relationships of prayer within monastic communities and with the world outside. Arguing that monastic leaders showed new interest on the intersection between the interiority of prayer and the functional world of social relationships, this study reveals the ascetic ideal undergirding the provision of intercessory prayer by monasteries.

In The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything, Father James Martin included a chapter on communicating with God. Now, he expands those thoughts in this profound and practical handbook. Learning to Pray explains what prayer is, what to expect from praying, how to do it, and how it can transform us when we make it a regular practice in our lives. A trusted guide walking beside us as we navigate our unique spiritual paths, Martin lays out the different styles and traditions of prayer throughout Christian history and invites us to experiment and discover which works best to feed our soul and build intimacy with our Creator. Father Martin makes clear there is not one secret formula for praying. But like any relationship, each person can discover the best style for building an intimate relationship with God, regardless of religion or denomination. Prayer, he teaches us, is open and accessible to anyone willing to open their heart.

As we dive into the Father's heart we are overwhelmed by His presence, the fullness of joy. From this place we begin to see from His perspective. As we see and understand His world we are compelled to intercede. We are now praying and speaking with fresh insight. We see that we no longer have to pray from a place of defense. Instead, we pray offensive prayers from His presence. When we speak our petitions and most importantly our declarations into the atmosphere, authority and breakthrough come. From the intimate place with our Father, everything is birthed.

The Youth Ministry and Spirituality Project was formed in 1997 to participate in the renewal of youth ministry in the Christian church. Its mission is to foster Christian communities that are attentive to God's presence, discerning of the Spirit and who accompany young people into the way of Jesus. Our mission is founded on the biblical vision of the human person who is created in the image and likeness of God and whose deepest longing is for communion with God and others in love. In response to Christ's invitation to abide in him (John 15:4), we believe that the central purpose of youth ministry is to open the minds and hearts of young persons to an intimate relationship with God in Christ through the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit. We seek to fulfill our mission through retreats, workshops, training events, written materials, and relationships that promote a contemplative approach to youth discipleship. The contemplative approach to youth ministry is based on a Christian community's commitment to cultivate attentiveness to God's Presence in the lives of young people and is supported in the following seven ways: SABBATH, PRAYER, COVENANT COMMUNITY, ACCOMPANIMENT, DISCERNMENT, HOSPITALITY,

AUTHENTIC ACTION.

The Prayer of Intercession and Its Cost

What does the tone of God's voice sound like? Every day, we are bombarded by voices of fear, anger, and speculation. They seek to drown out the one voice that we so desperately need to hear - the voice of Father God. God's voice is so different from every other voice. He is not only happy, but He is a good Father who gives His sons and daughters access to His heart. By listening to His voice, we are empowered to bring His Kingdom to Earth. Prophetic leader, podcaster, and emerging minister Sarah Cheesman takes an in-depth look at the heart of God for His sons and daughters. Dispelling lifetimes of false beliefs, she focuses on how knowing and listening to God's voice helps us discover His love and deep joy, every moment of every day! Using practical exercises for daily conversation and ongoing dialogue with the Holy Spirit, Sarah helps readers to: Discern the tone of God when you are receiving prophetic words, either from the Holy Spirit directly or spoken through another person. Understand the nature of the Father and His desire for all of His children to know Him. Overcome false beliefs about God. Receive daily prophetic wisdom, insight, and strategy for everyday life situations. Create a healthy prophetic community within the local church and be a blessing to the leadership and Body of Christ. Speak destiny over cities and nations. When you are connected to the source of life Himself, you will live in a whole new place of hope! Allow the kindness of the Father to propel you into your calling as His son or daughter, and change the world with His love!

Throughout Advent we read and sing the words Prepare the Way as we make room to welcome the Christ child into our lives once again. We prepare our city streets and buildings. We prepare our homes and workspaces. But sometimes Advent can slip away from us before we can prepare our hearts. In this 4-week study and prayer book, Pamela Hawkins invites us to prepare our hearts through guided prayer, readings from Isaiah and Matthew, as well as brief reflections on four scriptural themes: Peace, Justice,

Fearlessness, and Faithfulness. Prepare the Way includes these spiritual practices: Prayers of invocation, intercession, and benediction Reflection through spiritual reading Silence Meditation on scripture Call to Christian witness and service 4 weeks • Includes Leader's Guide
Doctor, contemplative, grandmother and priest, Una Kroll offers her experience of intercessory prayer. Showing how intercessory prayer can become a central part of life, she suggests ways which Christians can develop to pray to God. Thoughts about trees are interwoven in the text: real trees, mythical trees, and trees which carry the symbolism of life and death, and good and evil. Una Kroll relates her own story to these trees of life, to the word of God in the Bible, and to the teachings of the Christian Church. These reflections are followed by practical suggestions not only for intercessors, but for those who accompany others in their spiritual journeys: soul friends, spiritual directors and companions.

Leading readers to a sacred, private place of walking and talking with the Lord on a daily basis, Sarah Maddox and Patti Webb beautifully weave Scripture into prayer to carefully guide readers in their time of intercession.
