coincidences met
him as an adult
while an actress.
She and Mark have
been married more
than 40 years.
Cherri, who dreamt
she found her
drowned toddler
floating in a
neighbor ' s pool
after an extensive search. When she

awoke, her son was actually missing. Cherri ran straight to the neighbor ' s and found her son kneeling at the edge of the pool. Robert, who was pronounced dead after 30 minutes of CPR but whose wife insisted the doctor go back in and keep trying. All Robert remembers is an angel who kept pushing him away from the threshold of a serene blue-lit place he wanted to enter. Sherry, the Army officer who lost the diamond from her ring on the first day of training, spent weeks looking for it, and prayed during her graduation for it to be returned to her. Then she looked down and saw it in the mud between her boots. Lynn, who dreamt she saw a couple leave their newborn by a well where two women found her. A year later, Lynn adopted a one-year-old girl from China.

When she and her daughter visited the orphanage 14 years later they saw the well where she had been left and met the two women who found her, exactly as in the dream.

and help them become successful adults. These stories, great for kids to discuss with parents and teachers, help them be the best they can be. This collection shows kids positive role models to follow in its stories about making good choices, having confidence, and doing the right thing. Parents and grandparents will enjoy discussing the stories with children, making it a family event. Great for teachers to share with students, too. This book harnesses the power of storytelling to inspire and teach kids, while also entertaining them. Key issues such as bullying, tolerance, and values are addressed in stories selected from Chicken Soup for the Soul ' s vast library and represent the best on these topics

This book provides support during a very
emotional but exciting
time for parents -
sending their children
off to college, new homes, or careers. It's a must-read for empty nesters or soon-to-be empty nesters grappling with their own bittersweet new freedom. This is Chicken Soup for the Soul's first book on a very emotional but exciting time for parents - sending their children off to college or new homes and careers. This terrific book is a must read for empty nesters or soon-to-be empty nesters. It contains 101 stories written by parents who have been there already and share their stories with new empty nesters. These heartfelt stories will inspire, support,

and amuse parents
grappling with their own bittersweet new freedom. The book
also includes stories
from the kids
themselves, providing
the view from the other side. Parents
will nod their heads,
cry a little, and laugh
a lot as they recognize themselves and their

almost grown-up children in these stories. In this book, parents share stories of gazing at surprisingly clean bedrooms, starting new careers, rediscovering their spouses, and handling the continuing, and often humorous, needs of their children even while they are away at college or ensconced in their own apartments. In one amusing story, a mother writes of dropping her last child off at college and then realizing that she and her husband can do anything they want. They spend three days driving the six hours home. The first

Chicken Soup for the Soul book was published in 1993, and
became a publishing
industry sensation,
ultimately selling
eight million copies.
Since then, more than 150 Chicken Soup
titles have been published, selling
more than 100 million

copies. Chicken Soup for the Soul has won dozens of awards over the past 15 years, and its founders, Jack Canfield and Mark Victor Hansen have become celebrity motivational speakers and authors.

Look beyond the hurt
and use the power of forgiveness to move forward. Forgiveness is one of the best tools we have at our disposal to create a better life for ourselves. Leave that baggage behind as you put the past in the past— where it belongs! Forgiveness is an amazing tool—it can transform your life in just one second if you decide that you want to use its power. There ' s a reason we refer to anger, resentment, and disappointment as " baggage. " We carry it everywhere we go. We ' d like nothing more than to drop it on the side of the road and forget about it. But how do we do that? How do we process the past and then leave it behind? These 101 revealing true stories show you how. Learn how to manage your hurt with or without an apology and focus on what 's really important. Read about marriages being strengthened, families getting back together, grown children coming to understand their parents, and people overcoming the worst transgressions—even crimes. These men and women walked

forward light and
free, and you can,
too—onto the bright,
warm, welcoming
road ahead. And,
because no one 's
perfect, you 'll also learn how to
apologize if you 're
the one in the wrong... and how to

use the power of self-forgiveness to find peace and happiness. Chicken Soup for the Soul: Just for Preteens helps readers as they navigate those tough preteen years from ages 9 to 12 with its stories from others just like them, about the highs and lows of life as a preteen. It ' s a support group they carry in their

backpack! Being a
preteen is harder than
it looks! School is more challenging,
bodies are changing,
relationships with
parents are different,
and new issues arise
with friends. But this

collection will help preteens, showing them they are not alone. Readers will be encouraged and inspired by stories from other preteens, just like them, about the problems and issues they face every day.

emotions and finds herself a much more positive and productive person. Still a maverick with an irreverent sense of humor and a penchant for self-deprecating stories about herself and her family, she also synthesizes everything she has learned from reading and editing tens of thousands of Chicken Soup for the Soul stories, and presents her findings to readers. A keen observer on parenting, love and marriage, positive thinking, working,

Now more than ever,
the strong,
independent,
courageous voices of Black women are being heard loud and clear. They share their truth about life, love, family, faith and hope

in these 101 personal stories and 12 powerful poems. The world is listening. Black women are speaking, for themselves and their families, and everyone is listening. This unique collection of stories is for readers of all colors, not just the Black community, as these contributors share their dreams, their triumphs and failures, and their lives, which have unique challenges and hardships that are not well understood by others. Readers of color will recognize their own struggles in these pages, and white readers will benefit from an inside view of Black life in America, Canada and beyond. These 101 stories and 12 poems, written by and for Black women, cover it all—from fierce to funny—about hopes and dreams, fears and realities, identity and self-discovery, family, children, even hair.

Each one starts with a quote connecting you to a wellspring of wisdom from historical and contemporary Black women. “ We are speaking now, ” says Breena Clarke, coauthor of this book.

“ Because the moment is now, in this collection of first-
