A creative entrepreneur is someone who uses their creative or intellectual knowledge and skills to earn a living, usually in a business or as a freelancer. This differs from traditional entrepreneurship that has mainly focused on manufacturing and industrial products.

Basic Principals of Creative Entrepreneurs

Creative entrepreneurs and creative workers are a vital and vibrant component of Canada's economy, from solo-production crafters, muralists, tattoo artists, and illustrators to internationally-competitive companies in video games, animation, VR, software, film, and the world of dance, theatre, and galleries. Creative work spurs innovation and knowledge transfer across all sectors of the economy, creating commercial and cultural value, and income and employment opportunities.
