Employment Permit System Implemented in August, 2004 to help small and medium sized companies solve their labor shortages. It allows employers who have failed to hire native workers to legally hire an adequate number of foreign workers. It is a system that the government introduced to manage foreign workers in Korea in an organized manner.

Issue1. South Korea ' s Employment Permit System (EPS), introduced in 2004, was implemented by the government in response to concerns about the treatment of migrant workers in the country. Prior to the establishment of the EPS, migrant workers were brought to South Korea as “ trainees ” —treated as interns who were paid only stipends for their work and who did not fall under the country ' s labour laws.
