

Fun Fairies Activity Book 2 With Stickers

This scrapbook is especially designed for foster children to help them to remember their unique and sometimes complicated journeys through life. Scrapbooking provides an outlet of expression that may not be available in any other form. Families get involved and show their foster children how much they love them by helping them fill in the pages of this book. Author Karen Jean Matsko Hood has written My Special Care Scrapbook for Foster Children to keep those special memories, reflections, and thoughts in a safe place for your foster child. Help them fill it with photographs, memoirs, stickers, and awards to complete the book of memories that will be treasured for life. You can even add any information to this scrapbook that you may obtain prior to your child's adoption so that they know more of the special people who cared for them while they are in foster care. The author has first hand experience raising foster children and she knows how imperative it is.

With the help of the Tooth Fairies, Dr. Tooth explains to his young readers the importance of good dental care. Featuring 160 pages of puzzles, mazes, pictures to color, and enchanting artwork, My Dentist and the Tooth Fairy is ideal for children who are fearful of visiting the dentist or need a better understanding of the importance of proper dental care. A mother of sixteen children herself and the wife of a dentist, author Karen Jean Matsko Hood applies her personal experience to helping young children overcome their dental office visit fears by giving them a familiarity with basic dental hygiene, tips on good dental nutrition, and an understanding that all children share the same dental experiences. Moreover, Hood enlists her young readers' assistance in participating in their own, overall dental care.

Petting Farm Fun is the third release in the popular Hood Picture Book Series. It is a delightful bedtime story to entertain and then relax young children before they fall asleep. The tradition of the bedtime story has been around since before the written word. For generations, and in every culture, parents have prepared their children for bed by telling them stories. Karen Jean Matsko Hood is a prolific author and poet that loves children and animals. It is only fitting that she would write and direct the art of this delightful petting farm story. Her family has raised Nubian goats, fainting goats, Baby doll Southdown sheep, Icelandic sheep, Icelandic horses, and other petting animals as she knows this is a valuable experience for children. The author and her family also have first hand experience raising chickens, turkeys, ducks, and geese for organic eggs. Her children have actively worked on the goat dairy farm to milk goats for organic milk. All this inspired her to write this book. Petting Farm Fun makes an enjoyable story for readers of all ages as well as those who love animals and have an appreciation for nature and farm life. This book also makes a great gift to share with others.

Alice has a nose for trouble, but luckily she's a fairy--a Temporary Fairy. She has a magic wand, fairy wings, and a blanket, all of which she uses to disappear, to fly, to transform her dad into a horse, and to turn his cookies into her own! There are still a few things Alice needs to learn to become a Permanent Fairy, like how to float her dog on the ceiling and make her clothes put themselves away, but she's working on it--sort of. Here's an endearing, funny story about a girl and her magical imagination, sure to delight every fairy in training!
