Heart of Gold (2009 Remaster)

"Golden Harvest" is based around a 1940's photograph showing diggers at a grave site. The book, presumably based on evidence provided, states that the photograph is of Polish peasants looting the ashes of Murdered Jews of Treblinka. This accusation sets the theme for the rest of the book with Poles standing accused of complicity and profiteering.

Every summer, Golden Harvest sees an increase in the number of hungry families in need of help. Summer utility bills are higher, and when children don't receive free breakfast and lunch at school, it's hard to make food budgets stretch. This year, the Food Bank reached out to Richmond County Schools with a new plan to help meet the need.
