This exciting anthology of one-act plays includes classics such as Anton Chekhov's The Boor and John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea as well as lesser-known gems such as Alice Gerstenberg's Fourteen and Percival Wilde's The Sequel. Other plays in the collection include August Strindberg's The Stronger, Moliere's The Pretentious Young Ladies, Neith Boyce's Enemies, Horace Holley's The Genius, Susan Glaspell's Trifles, and Ferenc Molnar's A Matter of Husbands. Best of all, every play in this anthology is in the public domain and may, therefore, be performed without paying royalties, making this a great resource for theatres or schools with limited budgets.

This book includes a royalty free play script for teen actors called the Weird, Wild and Wonderful Days of School. This play has a flexible cast. Not all scenes need to be performed. And actors can play multiple parts because no characters repeat from scene to scene. The smallest cast you could have by doing all the scripts would be three males and four females. But there are many as 49 speaking roles possible.

In it, Aristotle offers an account of what he calls "poetry" (a term which in Greek literally means "making" and in this context includes drama - comedy, tragedy, and the satyr play - as well as lyric poetry and epic poetry). They are similar in the fact that they are all imitations but different in the three ways that Aristotle describes:

1. Differences in music rhythm, harmony, meter and melody. 2. Difference of goodness in the characters. 3. Difference in how the narrative is presented: telling a story or acting it out. In examining its "first principles," Aristotle finds two: 1) imitation and 2) genres and other concepts by which that of truth is applied/revealed in the poesis. His analysis of tragedy constitutes the core of the discussion. Although Aristotle's Poetics is universally acknowledged in the Western critical tradition, "almost every detail about his seminal work has aroused divergent opinions."

Lysistrata is the greatest work by Aristophanes. This blank and rash statement is made that it may be rejected. But first let it be understood that I do not mean it is a better written work than the Birds or the Frogs, or that (to descend to the scale of values that will be naturally imputed to me) it has any more appeal to the collectors of "curious literature" than the Ecclesiazusae or the Thesmophoriazusae. On the mere grounds of taste I can see an at least equally good case made out for the Birds. That brightly plumaged fantasy has an aerial wit and colour all its own.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • In this "essential" (Entertainment Weekly), "hilarious" (AV Club) memoir, the star of Mr. Show, Breaking Bad, and Better Call Saul opens up about the highs and lows of showbiz, his cult status as a comedy writer, and what it's like to reinvent himself as an action film ass-kicker at fifty. "I can't think of another entertainer who has improbably morphed so many times, and all through real genius and determination."—Conan O'Brien ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR: The New Yorker Bob Odenkirk's career is inexplicable. And yet he will try like hell to explicate it for you. Charting a "Homeric" decades-long "odyssey" from his origins in the seedy comedy clubs of Chicago to a dramatic career full of award nominations—with a side-trip into the action-man world that is baffling to all who know him—it's almost like there are many Bob Odenkirks! But there is just one and one is plenty. Bob embraced a life in comedy after a chance meeting with Second City's legendary Del Close. He somehow made his way to a job as a writer at Saturday Night Live. While surviving that legendary gauntlet by the skin of his gnashing teeth, he stashed away the secrets of comedy writing—eventually employing them in the immortal "Motivational Speaker" sketch for Chris Farley, honing them on The Ben Stiller Show, and perfecting them on Mr. Show with Bob and David. In Hollywood, Bob demonstrated a bullheadedness that would shame Sisyphus himself, and when all hope was lost for the umpteenth time, the phone rang with an offer to appear on Breaking Bad—a show about how boring it is to be a high school chemistry teacher. His embrace of this strange new world of dramatic acting led him to working with Steven Spielberg, Alexander Payne, and Greta Gerwig, and then, in a twist that will confound you, he re-re-invented himself as a bona fide action star. Why? Read this and do your own psychoanalysis—it's fun! Featuring humorous tangents, never-before-seen photos, wild characters, and Bob's trademark unflinching drive, Comedy Comedy Comedy Drama is a classic showbiz tale told by a determined idiot.

Home of the most popular one-act plays for student actors, Playscripts, Inc. presents 15 of their very best short comedies. From a blind dating debacle to a silly Shakespeare spoof, from a fairy tale farce to a self-hating satire, this anthology contains hilarious large-cast plays that have delighted thousands of audiences around the world.

Includes: The Audition by Don Zolidis; Law & Order: Fairy Tale Unit by Jonathan Rand; 13 Ways to Screw Up Your College Interview by Ian McWethy; Darcy's Cinematic Life by Christa Crewdson; The Whole Shebang by Rich Orloff; A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Fifth Period by Jason Pizzarello; Small World by Tracey Scott Wilson; The Absolute Most Cliched Elevator Play in the History of the Entire Universe by Werner Trieschmann; The Seussification of Romeo and Juliet by Peter Bloedel; Show and Spell by Julia Brownell; Cut by Ed Monk; Check Please by Jonathan Rand; Aliens vs. Cheerleaders by Qui Nguyen; The Brothers Grimm Spectaculathon (one-act) by Don Zolidis; and 15 Reasons Not To Be in a Play by Alan Haehnel

"As finely worked as a Swiss watch and as funny as the human condition permits..the zigzag brilliance of the text as the clunky lines of the farce-within-a-farce rub against the sharp dialogue of reality" Guardian A play-within-a-play following a touring theatre company who are rehearsing and performing a comedy called Nothing On, results in a riotous double-bill of comedic craft and dramatic skill. Hurtling along at breakneck speed it shows the backstage antics as they stumble through the dress-rehearsal at Weston-super-Mare, then on to a disastrous matinee at Ashton-under-Lyne, followed by a total meltdown in Stockton-on-Tees. Michael Frayn's irresistible, multi-award-winning backstage farce has been enjoyed by millions of people worldwide since it premiered in 1982 and has been hailed as one of the greatest British comedies ever written. Winner of both Olivier and Evening Standard Awards for Best Comedy. This edition features a new introduction by Michael Blakemore.

One of the most dazzling Royal Court debut in years -Time Out London

(Applause Acting Series). 5-Minute Plays is the latest collection from veteran editor Lawrence Harbison, a man who has spent his career championing new and established playwrights by bringing their work into print. What's the story behind this one? In keeping with the spirit of the book, we'll give it to you in five. 1. On any given day, freely circulated viral videos make waves across our society and we take the time to consume them. The top trenders boast an average length around five minutes. 2. Needless to say, an average play runs far longer (and costs much more). Accordingly, we don't have the time (or money) for theater. 3. Variety is the spice of life perhaps that's why the passive consumption of digital media runs rampant. Sometimes you feel like something melodramatic; sometimes you feel like something comedic. Sometimes you crave the firm grounding of realism; sometimes you crave the sweet escape of surreality. Sometimes you desire each of these things in rapid succession within the course of a half hour. Whatever your mood, bite-sized bits of entertainment keep you covered. 4. At long last, the world of theater has caught up with the digital realm. Five-minute plays and festivals abound you can now plow through a full-fledged performance in less time than it takes a busy barista to make your grande chai latte, skim, with whip. 5. Seems you suddenly do have time for theatre. Whether you're an actor looking for a quick warm-up, an instructor scrounging for tight scene exercises, or an everyday reader eager to speed-date some of today's most talented playwrights, 5-Minute Plays provides all the theater you need without killing all the free time you have. Why not give it a whirl?

(Applause Acting Series). In 10-Minute Plays for Kids , young thespians will find terrific plays by some of our most prominent playwrights such as Sharyn Rothstein, Alex Broun, Jenny Lyn Bader, Claudia I. Haas, and Mark Harvey Levine, and by others less well known but equally terrific such as Sharai Bohannon, Suzanne Bailie, and Shirley King. The characters and situations portrayed are perfect for the kid actor. Some of the plays explore relatable tales of friendship and family, while others allow the actors to take on the personas of nonhuman characters, such as fish and chess pieces! 10-Minute Plays for Kids is ideal for theater students, youth groups, and acting classes.

WAR OF THE MILLENNIUM! AMERICAN PRESIDENT & HIS SECURITY V/S WORLD'S

MOST DANGEROUS TERRORIST OSAMA V/S UNDEAD KING, JAMES &

PRINCE. WHO WILL WIN This is being published as a book but it has been written in a manner that this can be directly converted into an ALL TIME BIGGEST BLOCKBUSTER BOLLYWOOD MOVIE without any change. However, I want to make it clear that currently no producer is making this movie and no film star has been approached to play any role but I have written my characters keeping in mind top Bollywood Super Stars. It will be a very very big budget movie and the biggest multi starrer (with 9 Super Stars). It will be bigger and better than anything seen before in Bollywood or Hollywood. It is written as a complete Family Entertainer with Action, Emotions, Thrills, Romance, Songs, Dance & Comedy. It will be loved by all Bollywood Masala movies fans and it is suitable for all age groups. It is based in Dubai and some part will be shot in Iceland & USA also. The story has 9 main characters. Main Characters:1.XXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX as King: King has a secret Den below the sea (near Palm Jumeirah). He is the king of the underworld. He remains mostly in his den and is rarely seen in the Public. King has a beard, mostly wears goggles, smokes Cigars and is shown in Smart Suites with Tie. King is mostly involved in Arms Supply and Diamonds Smuggling but he is not involved in terrorist activities. He mostly goes out in helicopters. He is also romantic in nature and likes to enjoy in the company of beautiful girls. Monica is his secretary cum girlfriend.2.XXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX as James: James plays a James Bond type character. He likes to play with danger and he is willing to do any daredevil act if he is paid the right money but he is not involved in illegal activities. He has a very smart James Bond type look. He has some very smart cars which are loaded with gadgets, e.g., hidden machine guns at the front and the back and his car converts into a boat and also into a flying car. Sometimes he is also seen on smart bikes. 3.XXXXXXXXX XXXX as Senorita: James's love interest is played by Senorita. She is the daughter of a billionaire. She is kidnapped by Osama and taken away in Iceland. She is rescued by James and they fall in love with each other. 4.XXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX as Prince: King's operations are mostly handled by his son Prince. He is seen in smart Jeans, Jackets, Long Shoes, slight beard and sometimes with goggles. He moves around in Limousines and other fancy cars.5.XXXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX as Simran: Prince's love interest is played by Simran, who is a Super Model. She is from India but travels around the globe for her modeling assignments. She is alone and her parents have expired. She meets Prince on a Ship and they soon fall in love with each other. She is seen in modern western dresses.6.XXXXXXX XXXX as Osama: Osama is the world's most dangerous terrorist. He is shown bald and wearing pathani suits. Osama has multiple dens, including a den at Iceland (which is made of ice) and another 'Night Safari' type den near Dubai. 7.XXXXXX XXXXXXXX as Aditya: Aditya plays a Senior SECRET SERVICE officer and he is responsible for the Security of the American President. He is given a tough look and he is a very strict officer. 8.XXXXXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX as Monica: She is King's secretary cum girl friend. She is mostly seen with King when King is in the Mansion. She mostly wears Mini Skirt and T-Shirt / top.9.American President: American President gets an invitation to come to Dubai to inaugurate the tallest tower in the world "Burj Khalifa". He gets threats from Osama that if he comes to Dubai then he will be either killed or kidnapped. Last one hour will be the highlight of the movie where American President visits Dubai and Osama tries to kill or kidnap him. This is watched by the whole world on TV.

Known for his bold, satirical revelations, Harishankar Parsai leaves no stone unturned to expose the murky moss of the society we live in. Casteists or politicians, bureaucrats or manipulators, none escape the scathing commentary of Parsai. Written almost forty years ago, the 21 stories couldn't be more topical and still inspire a hearty laugh. A not-to-be-missed volume for all who enjoy plurality of language.

Inspector Matadeen on the Moon

Samuel Beckett, one of the great avant-garde Irish dramatists and writers of the second half of the twentieth century, was born on 13 April 1906. His centenary will be celebrated throughout 2006 with performances of his major plays, including Waiting for Godot. Here are the two most famous plays for solo voice. Krapp's Last Tape finds an old man, with his tape recorder, musing over the past and future. Not I is a remarkable tour de force for a single actress, as a woman emits memories and fears. Also included are two other singular short dramas for single voice, That Time read by John Moffatt and A Piece of Monologue read by Peter Marinker.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE A.V. CLUB • Includes new interviews! From the writer and director of Knocked Up and the producer of Freaks and Geeks comes a collection of intimate, hilarious conversations with the biggest names in comedy from the past thirty years—including Mel Brooks, Jerry Seinfeld, Jon Stewart, Sarah Silverman, Harold Ramis, Seth Rogen, Chris Rock, and Lena Dunham. Before becoming one of the most successful filmmakers in Hollywood, Judd Apatow was the original comedy nerd. At fifteen, he took a job washing dishes in a local comedy club—just so he could watch endless stand-up for free. At sixteen, he was hosting a show for his local high school radio station in Syosset, Long Island—a show that consisted of Q&As with his comedy heroes, from Garry Shandling to Jerry Seinfeld. They talked about their careers, the science of a good joke, and their dreams of future glory (turns out, Shandling was interested in having his own TV show one day and Steve Allen had already invented everything). Thirty years later, Apatow is still that same comedy nerd—and he's still interviewing funny people about why they do what they do. Sick in the Head gathers Apatow's most memorable and revealing conversations into one hilarious, wide-ranging, and incredibly candid collection that spans not only his career but his entire adult life. Here are the comedy legends who inspired and shaped him, from Mel Brooks to Steve Martin. Here are the contemporaries he grew up with in Hollywood, from Spike Jonze to Sarah Silverman. And here, finally, are the brightest stars in comedy today, many of whom Apatow has been fortunate to work with, from Seth Rogen to Amy Schumer. And along the way, something kind of magical happens: What started as a lifetime's worth of conversations about comedy becomes something else entirely. It becomes an exploration of creativity, ambition, neediness, generosity, spirituality, and the joy that comes from making people laugh. Loaded with the kind of back-of-the-club stories that comics tell one another when no one else is watching, this fascinating, personal (and borderline-obsessive) book is Judd Apatow's gift to comedy nerds everywhere. Praise for Sick in the Head "I can't stop reading it. . . . I don't want this book to end." —Jimmy Fallon "An essential for any comedy geek." —Entertainment Weekly "Fascinating . . . a collection of interviews with many of the great figures of comedy in the latter half of the twentieth century." —The Washington Post "Open this book anywhere, and you're bound to find some interesting nugget from someone who has had you in stitches many, many times." —Janet Maslin, The New York Times "An amazing read, full of insights and connections both creative and interpersonal." —The New Yorker "Fascinating and revelatory." —Chicago Tribune "Anyone even remotely interested in comedy or humanity should own this book." —Will Ferrell

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself, while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Stage Play with Monologues for Teen Actors

Much Ado About Nothing is a comedy by William Shakespeare. First published in 1600, it is likely to have been first performed in the autumn or winter of 1598-1599, and it remains one of Shakespeare's most enduring and exhilarating plays on stage. Stylistically, it shares numerous characteristics with modern romantic comedies including the two pairs of lovers, in this case the romantic leads, Claudio and Hero, and their comic counterparts, Benedick and Beatrice.

A no-holds-barred expose of the Hindi film industry's sordid underbelly. Ali Amjad comes from Benares to make it as a scriptwriter in Bombay, only to experience the absurd and tragic reality behind the film world's glamour as he navigates through it with his fellow strugglers. A short, fascinating novel set in the Bombay of the 1970s, Rahi Masoom Raza's Scene: 75 is a crazy kaleidoscope of stories within stories populated by a cast of extraordinary and memorable - but also cynical and manipulative - characters, from struggling directors and wealthy lesbians to film-obsessed social climbers and sleazy producers. In this irreverent, surreal, deeply satirical and darkly humorous work, the author's biting prose takes an unflinching look at both Hindu-Muslim and class relations, as well as at how human ties corrode and wither because of ambition and self-interest. Superbly translated by Poonam Saxena, this lost classic from Rahi Masoom Raza rips off the tinsel curtain that hides the film industry's hypocrisy, insecurity and desperation for success. It is a novel that will delight and disturb in equal measure.
