Holy Spirit Color Sheet

This book is designed to capture the spirit of Christmas. There are over 100 pages which contain 50+ delightful, black-and-white line illustrations for coloring, that have been created to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ over two thousand years ago. You'll find all your favorite images embodying the essence of Christmas, from Baby Jesus, Mary, and the Three Wise Men in the Nativity, through to Santa Claus, Christmas trees, stockings, gifts, reindeers and sleighs...plus much more! The images are very easy to color, with lots of open spaces. They are detailed enough to keep young minds occupied, without being so challenging they lose interest. The images are printed on one side of the pages only, to give the best coloring experience. The jictures are accompanied with explanatory text, written into rhymes to tell the stories and deliver the messages. The first half comprises of an A-Z Christmas alphabet, with big bold letters to color. The second half contains a story of the Old Lady who lives in a shoe, and how both she and Santa cope with delivering toys to all her forty-two children! This book is designed to capture the imaginations and attention of growing minds, to give them hours upon hours of coloring fun! I hope they enjoy it as much as we enjoyed creating it. When we teach children about the fruit of the Spirit, we latch onto the idea of fruit-apples, oranges, grapes-as a way to simplify and illustrate the idea. The activities in this book will help children understand the fruit of the Spirit in His relationships with His Father and with other people. Activities include puzzles, coded messages, mini-books, rhymes, songs, acrostics, crafts, object lessons, and various othe creative teaching ideas. Each lesson begins with a Bible story of a person who demonstrated the fruit of the Spirit in his or her life. The stories are presented in a variety of creative ways to capture children in discovering for themselves the importance of each fruit mentioned in Galatians 5:22-23. The lessons are based on the New International Version Bible. An answer key is provided at the back of the book.

What do indoor picnics and funny face contests have to do with loving Jesus? More than you realize! As a mom in the throes of parenting, Courtney DeFeo believes that instilling virtues in children starts with laughter, not lecture. That perspective propelled her to create this idea-packed book, in which she offers motivating reflections, real-life stories, and a sandbox full of inventive ways to help you turn your kids 'hearts toward God. Each chapter focuses on one virtue that is key for developing your child 's character. Along with insights into how this virtue plays out in the nitty-gritty of life, Courtney includes a memory verse, activity ideas, and discussion questions to reinforce that virtue through delightful antics like Family Olympics, One Fancy Feast, and Light 'Em Up. In This House, We Will Giggle shows you how to capture the palloons not included!)

Providing an excellent example of why folk artists can be appreciated as carriers of knowledge, even if they are unaware of it, this book could change the ways we understand and appreciate American folk arts. Connecting a sharecropper from Georgia in the Southern United States to a protector and healer in Touba, Senegal, West Africa, the holy city of Mouridism, and the final resting place of its founder, Shaikh Ahmadou B à mba Mb à cke, it makes an interesting link while examining the cultural aspects of two very different and yet similar paths of life. Historians alike will find this investigation of African American art and folk culture both interesting and insightful. Not only does this book trace the characteristics of art through the African Diaspora, but it also traces Islam through those same diasporic transportations of colonial exploration and slavery.
