This book
explores the complexities of
the recreational
summer camp
experience and
its reliance on
the expertise
and emotion

work of young people. Drawing
on post-
structural theory, Baker
illustrates the
discourses,
power relations
and emotional
demands that
shape camp
counsellor
employment

experiences and
well-being.

Through
analysis of
everyday
experiences and
interactions,
Baker unpicks
the power nexus
between
counsellors,
campers, peers
and camp

management,
offering a
deeper understanding
of camp
counsellor
employment and
the challenges
for camp
employees and employers. As such, this book
raises a call

for camp
researchers and
industry
leaders to engage in rethinking how
camp counsellor
roles are
understood,
shaped and
embodied, and
how they might be ethically

How can you pack all the camping gear and clothing needed for two people on a motorcycle? At first, it may seem impossible but it is easier than you think if you do your homework. You must learn how to acquire the right gear, how to pack it, and how to use it at your campsite. Lightweight Camping for Motorcycle Travel provides the information and suggestions you will need to buy the right clothing, tents, sleeping bags, tools, lights, cookware, and other camping gear. It describes how to set up comfortable campsites, use ropes and knots, cook great tasting meals, stay dry in stormy weather, stay warm on cool nights, and prolong the life of your gear.

Once you take a few
trips and master the
necessary skills, you
will enjoy many
pleasures you could never experience in an expensive motel room.
You will enjoy
breathing fresh air and
smelling food cooking
at the campground.

You will enjoy

walking on scenic trails and relaxing at your campsite. In the evening, you will enjoy sitting by a
warm campfire,
listening to an owl,
and occasionally
hearing a gentle rain
falling on your tent.

than 500 tips and techniques for first-time campers and veteran outdoorsmen alike. Created by Field & Stream and Audubon Magazine editor-at-large T. Edward Nickens, this manual instructs campers on topics like: planning a trip, setting up camp, cooking large meals in the woods, and preparation for any unexpected circumstance. The latest in Weldon Owen's popular series of outdoor manuals that have sold more than 1 million copies to date, this is a practical, well-packaged and giftable reference work.

Once, there were two interesting women who led separate lives ...

until fate decided it had other plans for them. Marie, who is single, lives in an apartment in the city and is a social worker.

Jane is divorced and a mother of two; she lives in a home in the suburbs and works in real estate.

When they happen
to meet at a conference, they
bond on the spot.
A casual invitation
to go tent camping
turns into the start
of a beautiful
relationship—and
the seed of an
epic, four-year

adventure in which they will explore the United States in an RV. Along the way, the ladies find themselves in some sticky situations. They find love and lust in unexpected places. They find themselves floating high above Albuquerque, New Mexico, in a hot-air balloon. They somehow wind up

trapped in a den of foxes. And then they witness an abusive
relationship that
ends in murder ...
The two friends

soon learn that life in an RV is much different than they expected. But through it all, they are carried forward on a wave of fun, friendship, and excitement. What will they get into next?
