Interest representation in the European Union | College of ...

6 - Interest groups and interest representation from PART II - Key actors in EU politics: citizens, interest groups and political parties Herman Lelieveldt , Sebastiaan Princen , Universiteit Utrecht, The Netherlands

This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of the role and importance of interest groups in the development and policy of the European Union. Covering professional, consumer and social interests as well as business, labour and general issues of regulation, it presents a very wide range of information and data including the results of original research by the author.

Showing that interest representation is a key aspect of the European project, it examines the significance of interests for everyday policy-making, for European integration, and for the democratic legitimacy of the EU.
