

Kissinger Diplomacy

? Henry Kissinger, Diplomacy “both the American and the European approaches to foreign policy were the products of their own unique circumstances. Americans inhabited a nearly empty continent shielded from predatory powers by two vast oceans and with weak countries as neighbors. Kissinger delivers tremendous, first-hand insight into Cold War policy, and Nixon’s intercourse with China. The most interested aspect of Kissinger’s work is the frequent lectures on foreign affairs. Throughout Diplomacy, Kissinger will deliver tremendous analysis on the subjects.
