A riveting history of Poland since the war and a startling disclosure of the inner workings of the highest offices in Communist Poland.

~~Liberation Of One: The Autobiography of Romuald Spasowski ...~~

The Liberation of One is based on the 1986 autobiography of Romuald 'Romek' Spasowsky, the highest ranking Communist official ever to defect to the West. WARNING: SPOILERS AHEAD! The story of The Liberation of One begins at the end in 1981 when Spasowsky, the Polish Ambassador to the United States, defected to the US after General Wojciech Jaruzelski imposed martial law in Poland.

~~The Liberation of One: The Defection of Romuald Spasowski ...~~

The Liberation of One is his autobiography, documenting his slow, decades-long disillusionment with communism and its brutal implementation. This transition in his thinking was immeasurably complicated by his employment as a high-level diplomat for the communist Polish government.
