I have read most of Edward Rutherfurd's books, some several times. I would recommend London and all the others to anyone who is interested in history. Rutherfurd has a wonderful way of inserting fictional people into real events that bring them all to life. As I read London I made a list of the places in the wonderful city I would like to visit.

Edward Rutherfurd is a pen name for Francis Edward Wintle (born 1948 in Salisbury, England). He is best known as a writer of epic historical novels which span long periods of history but are set in particular places. His debut novel Sarum set the pattern for his work with a ten-thousand-year storyline.

Edward Rutherfurd - Wikipedia

London covers almost two thousand years of history and focuses on a few familial hereditary lines throughout that span of time. Each period of history that is selected by Rutherford is complemented by stories that focus on these families. But the stories are mostly rooted in domestic issues.
