Singular and plural nouns denote the differences between one person, place or thing, and multiple people, places, or things. Singular nouns are when there is only one. Plural nouns are when there is more than one. An 's' can be added to the end of most nouns to indicate this. For example: car = cars. Nouns ending in a 'y' are made plural by adding 'ies' to the end. For example: lady = ladies.

Plural and Singular Nouns - KS2 Resources & Activities
In the English language, nouns are inflected for grammatical number —that is, singular or plural. The plural morpheme in English is suffixed to the end of most nouns. Regular English plurals fall into three classes, depending upon the sound that ends the singular form: Where a singular noun ends in a sibilant sound —/s/, /z/, /ʒ/, /ʒ/, /tʃ/ or /dʒ/— the plural is formed by adding /əz/.

What are singular and plural? A noun names an object, person or place. When a noun is singular, it means there is one of them. When a noun is plural it means there is more than one. 'Dog', 'balloon' and 'table' are singular nouns because there is only one of each of them. If these nouns were plural, it would mean there were more than one of
