A 2022 SPE Outstanding Book Award Winner We Be Lovin' Black Children is a pro-Black book. Pro-Black does not mean anti-white or anti anything else. It means that this little book is about what we must do to ensure that Black children across the world are loved, safe, and that their souls and spirits are healed from the ongoing damage of living in a world where white supremacy flourishes. It offers strategies and activities that families, communities, social organizations, and others can use to unapologetically love Black children. This book will facilitate Black children's cultural and academic excellence. Meet the editors:

Contending that librarians occupy key positions in the educational technology revolution, these authors examine how technology-enhanced education improvements fit in with the library media program. They discuss organizational challenges of library-media-led Internet integration throughout the school curriculum. Planning; school and community and networking; staff development and policy; acceptable use, censorship, and copyright are some of the issues covered. The book also reviews some Internet tools (e.g., World Wide Web) and provides guidelines for access and application to the curriculum. A glossary and disks to aid in Internet navigation are included.

Strengthen family and community engagement to promote equity and increase student success! When schools, families, and communities collaborate and share responsibility for students' education, more students succeed in school. Based on 30 years of research and fieldwork, this fourth edition of a bestseller provides tools and guidelines to use to develop more effective and equitable programs of family and community engagement. Written by a team of well-known experts, this foundational text demonstrates a proven approach to implement and sustain inclusive, goal-oriented programs.
