A book detailing her life – Robyn Kina: Strong Aboriginal Woman. A Lifer Redeemed – was launched at the Queensland State Library this week. Mr Berry authored the book, which he started writing with Ms Kina before her death in 2009. Robyn Kina with members of Sisters Inside

Book aims to use legal travesty to help others

Robyn Kina: Strong Aboriginal Woman, A Lifer Redeemed is a factual affair of one of the worst miscarriages of justice Australia has seen. It's a thought-provoking account of Robyn Kina's life from birth through to death and it's an inspiring story of someone who overcomes the emotional and physical pain of domestic violence and leaves a legacy of enduring hope for others.
