A Study Guide for Lucille Clifton's "In the Inner City"

A Study Guide for Washington Irving's "Devil and Tom Walker"

A reference manual for all immigrants looking to become citizens This pocket study guide will help you prepare for the naturalization test. If you were not born in the United States, naturalization is the way that you can voluntarily become a US citizen. To become a naturalized U.S. citizen, you must pass the naturalization test. This pocket study guide provides you with the civics test questions and answers, and the reading and writing vocabulary to help you study. Additionally, this guide contains over fifty civics lessons for immigrants looking for additional sources of information from which to study. Some topics include:

- Principles of American democracy
- Systems of government
- Rights and representation
- Colonial history
- Recent American history
- American symbols
- Important holidays
- And dozens more topics!

The purpose of the Study Guide is to assist candidates in preparing for the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification's (NCTRC) national certification examination for Therapeutic Recreation Specialist. The Study Guide will: a) provide information on reducing test anxiety and improving test performance; and b) provide numerous sample questions, similar to those actually found on the exam, which will allow candidates to practice and self-assess their own readiness for the test.

The College Proficiency Examination Program (CPEP) enables those who lack formal college course work to demonstrate their competency in various subject areas on a credit-by-examination basis.
