Surplus People From Wicklow To Canada

The clearances of uneconomic tenants from the 85,000-acre Coolattin Estate in County Wicklow by Lord Fitzwilliam were the most organised in Ireland during and after the Famine years. From 1847 to 1856 Fitzwilliam removed 6,000 men, women and children and arranged passage from New Ross in Wexford to Canada on emigrant ships such as the Dunbrody.

Surplus People: From Wicklow to Canada eBook by Jim Rees ...

The date was June 1848 and the unfortunate people of whom he wrote were destitute refugees from famine-stricken Ireland. Failure of Potato Crop A series of potato crop failures in the previous three years deprived the vast majority of Irish rural dwellers of their staple diet, and created a situation in which emigration was for many the only alternative to starvation.

Surplus People - countywicklowheritage.org

The book chronicles the systematic removal of 6,000 people from the vast Coollatin estate in my own county of Wicklow. These people were encouraged to emigrate to Quebec, along with tens of thousands from other parts of Ireland. Many died at sea.
