The Boy Who Could Do

The Boy Who Could Do What He Liked is an amazing children's book, probably best for around 6-10 years. I rated it a 5-star because there is nothing wrong with it! I think David Baddiel should write a lot Moore books and become the new David Walliams!!!

The Boy Who Could Do What He Liked by David Baddiel

It starts out with a mildly interesting premise (a boy whose life is strictly set to routines) and then suddenly people change character, laws of nature stop applying, and the boy can do any weird thing he can possibly imagine. Just when it seems the book can't get any worse, it goes into a multi-page fart joke.
