

The Crucible Act 2

Answer

But Elizabeth wants John to make sure that Abigail understands that there is no hope of John and Abigail being together ever again. Elizabeth believes that Abigail is holding onto a promise—spoken or unspoken—made between Abigail and John that would make Abigail want to have Elizabeth killed in order to take her place.

Answered by jill d #170087 4 years ago 10/5/2016 7:01 AM Elizabeth is unaware of the number of arrests, as she hasn't been to town. It is Mary Warren who informs the family of the arrests in town. She reports that thirty-nine people are arrested, and Goody Osburn will hang, but not Sarah Good because she confessed.

The Crucible Summary and Analysis of Act Two. The second act takes place in the common room of Proctor's house eight days later. John Proctor returns from a day in the fields and greets his wife, Elizabeth. They make small talk about dinner and the crops, but there is an awkwardness between them.
