Summary and reviews of The Glass Casket by McCormick Templeman

The Glass Casket sets up a little more like a dark fantasy than a true horror story at first, which gave me pause, but McCormick Templeman surprised me. Templeman spins a tale of suspense, murder, and dark love in the vein of the great gothic tales, sensual and at times terrifying.

When tragedy strikes, madness and fear reach a fever pitch among the town's inhabitants as they seek to unmask the evil in their midst. With THE GLASS CASKET, McCormick Templeman gives readers an ominous fairy tale filled with the darkest, bloodiest bits of their nightmares. I have very mixed feelings about McCormick Templeman's THE GLASS CASKET.
