The Long Ships takes place all over the known Viking world, with the exception of Iceland, Greenland, and the struggling Vinland colony. Its hero, Red Orm Tostesson, sails to France, Spain (where he serves in the guard of the Moorish leader Almansur), Ireland, England, Denmark, Sweden, and even Russia.

The Long Ships: A Saga of the Viking Age by Frans G. Bengtsson

The long ships could be called a slice of life, but given the subject it has to be more correct to call it a family saga. By the end I felt at home in the culture of this man and his family. Bengtsson has built, peopled and guided us deep into a a long gone world and left us confident that we are there and that it was like that.
