The Military Revolution: Military Innovation and the Rise of the West, 1500-1800, by Geoffrey Parker (1988) The advent of gunpowder weapons dramatically changed warfare during the late Middle Ages and early modern periods. Gunpowder was a Chinese invention. Why then was it the West that came to adopt it so completely and use the weaponry designed to employ it to put itself in a position to dominate much of the world by the 19 th century?
